NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it The testimony of physicians, druggists, and patients is unanimous on this point, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position this remedy has attained, and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.I.

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial, I am, gentlemen, very truly etc THEO P BOGERT.

Keeping the Boys on the Farm

In an extended argument as to the desirability of farmer's sons sticking to the farm, the Cincinnati Commercial observes that there is a feature in this matter of sons following the calling of their fathers that is not sufficiently regarded.

"The calling of the father may rise to a higher dignity when the sons adopt the business, thoroughly learn it, and zealously and proudly pursue it Then the accumulated reputation, capital, and business of the parent can be inherited and preserved by the sons

"Again, it is a law of nature that holds good in all the animal kingdom, that aptness for any business may be inherited, or may be bred, as we say of stock. The great desideratum in developing a race of trotters is to insure an aptness to trot. And this comes not from stock that has habitually been used for the draught or chase or race course If the dam trots and the sire trots we do not expect the offspring to be a running horse

"The old Spartans understood this law of developing an aptness for a given calling in the children The Germans of olden times developed a race of warriors on the same principle

"The law of heredity is so broad and so powerful in its influence that it extends not only to color and form of our race, but it extends to the temperament and even to the tastes The taste, though like the muscle and reasoning faculties, may be improved by education. Still the taste for and aptness for any calling may be increased from generation to generation

"Then, if we are to reach the highest development as a race of farmers, we must expect it through the line of descent The son must inherit the fitness of the father, and take up the calling and business where he left off, and his son after him, and so on When this shall become the custom in our farming families, then shall we see greater stability in society and a higher type of civilization. Every parent has the chief power to bring this work about The very independence of the farmer's life is to be the germ which develops a race that cannot be other than an independent people Our nation is to achieve its greatness in the development of agriculture Its power at home and abroad is to be established and held through the arts of husbandry, practiced by a skillful and virtuous race of farmers. All that can be done by the state or family to ennoble and to dignify the calling, and to entail its blessings and influence from father to son, will add to the stability and grandeur of the nation."

An aged Christian, with the snow of time on his head, may remind us that those points on earth are whitest which are nearest heaven.

No man ever lived a right life who had not been chastened by a woman's love, strengthened by her courage and guided by her discretion

Common words used on great occasions are the more striking because they are felt at once to have a particular meaning, like old banners, or every day clothes hung up in a sacred place

A Chinese maxim says We require four good things of woman That virtue dwell in her heart, that modesty play on her brow, that sweetness flow from her lips, that industry occupy her hands.

Knowledge is not wisdom, it is only the raw material from which the beautiful fabric of wisdom is produced Each one, therefore, should not spend his days in gathering materials, and so live and die without a shelter.

So deeply inherent is it in this life of ours that men have to suffer for each other's sins, so inevitably diffusive is human suffering, that even justice makes its victims, and we can conceive no retribution that does not spread beyond its mark in pulsations of unmerited pain

MANKIND'S MISTAKES MADE MANIFEST.

The practice of mistaken economy was probably never more prevalent than during the past few years Many persons have been deceived into buying goods merely because they were low priced—not cheap, as represented

B. STINE,

THE "BOSS CLOTHIER'S"

Efforts to demonstrate the above facts, have been CROWNED WITH SUCCESS

1st By placing before the people of this community a line of

Ready-made Clothing!

Superior in Fit, Style, Workmanship, Trimmings and Substantial Materials, than any kept by our competitors

2d By selling our Goods at Lower Prices notwithstanding their superiority over others

And the reasons why we can sell a better class of Goods at Lower Prices than our friends in the clothing business, is due to the following facts

We buy for Cash, not where we can, but where we please.

We don't owe any allegiance to any one house to supply us with clothing for our trade, to be used by them as scavengers to feed us and our costomers on what they can't sell, and while any other house may claim to manufacture their own clothing, the fact of selling a better class of goods for less money, backed up with the guarantee to refund the money in every case, is the strongest evidence that we mean what we say.

YOURS TRULY,

B. STINE,

The "Boss Clothier."

Read what Graves & Lomis, the largest breeders of horses in the State of Illinois, have to say.

For thirty years we have been using all kinds of liniment manufactured for horses, and, of all the liniments, Whittier's stands at the head of the list for Scratches, Greased Heel, Sprains, Galled Spots, and Sores of any kind. It will give all horsemen satisfaction. GRAVES & LOMIS.

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 3, 1880.

The sheriff of Christian county is dead.

BISMARCK has recovered sufficiently to resume the discharge of his official duties.

IT is now reported that E. C Hamburgher, of Quincy, late clerk of the supreme court, is about to take the field as a candidate for secretary of state.

AN Indianapolis architect is preparing plans for several new and handsome depots which are to be erected immediately at stations on the line of the Indianapolis, Decatur & Springfield road.

SPEAKER RANDALL, the other day, announced from the speaker's chair that if he had his way he would pardon every rebel soldier, and pension all who are disabled. And nobody on the Democratic side of the country has yet been heard to object.

WHAT does Washburne intend to do, anyhow? The New York Tribune asserts that he is not a candidate for governor, while the Globe-Democrat as vigorously declars that he will not contest for the presidential nomination Will Mr. Washburne please speak out, and end the suspense.

HON. W B. CHAMBERS.

We are in receipt of a communication from Hon. W. B. Chambers, in which he asks us to say that while he appreciates the feelings of partiality displayed in his favor by the large numbers of his friends who have solicited him to become a candidate for Mayor, the demands of his personal affairs upon his time and attention are such that he cannot comply with the wishes of those who have so kindly expressed their preference for him. He wishes us to say, therefore, that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for mayor at the ensuing municipal election.

DEATH'S DOINGS

Hon. Virgil Hickox, one of the best-known citizens of the state, died yesterday at his residence in Springfield, in the 74th year of his age. Mr. Hickox had been a resident of Springfield since 1834, and had all his life been an active business man. He was an active Democratic politician, but never an office-seeker. Virgil H. Parke, of this city, is his nephew and namesake.

About the same hour at which Mr. Hickox' death occurred, Geo P. Bowen Esq., Clerk of the United States District Court, died at his residence in the same city, at the age of 44 years Mr. Bowen had been for sixteen years the incumbent of the position which he held at the time of his death, and he was a deservedly popular official. He was sick only about a week, his disease being typhoid-pneumonia.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal, contrary to all precedent in Southern journalistic policy, advocates the education by the State of the 70,000 colored youth within the borders of Kentucky, the aim being to make them intelligent voters and worthy citizens. The millennium neareth!

IT is now given out, conjecturally, that Germany's contemplated army increase is designed as a menace towards France. The latter Government will, it is alleged, be requested to co-operate with the rest of the Great Powers to put down Nihilism, Socialism and other agencies which threaten monarchical government, and in the event of her refusal, the German and Austrian alliance will proceed to warlike measures.

THE people of the Dominion of Canada are on the qui vive of anticipation. The wife of their Governor General—the Princess of Lorne, Queen Victoria's daughter—is expected to return to them this week accompanied by Lady Pelly and Hon. Mrs. Langham as her ladies-in-waiting. Her husband is now in Halifax, waiting for the steamer from England. In the meantime the Prince of Wales' two sailor sons are said to be on their way from the West Indies to join the party at Halifax. These are the boys who were reported to have been tattooed on their noses.

MR. WALLS, of the Newman Independent, has got a mission. It is to prevent Joe Cannon from being again nominated for congress in this district. Tune your lyre, Bro. Walls, and wake the echoes. None will say you nay. And when the thing is all over, look back and see how far you've got.—Danville Commercial.

WARRENSBURG WAIFS.

WARRENSBURG, Ill., Feb. 2, '80.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—For fear the people of Macon county might forget that Warrensburg existed, I shall drop a few lines for the many readers of your valuable paper. Our village has had nothing of special interest this winter. Among the occurrences that created a little stir was an attack on Mr. B. Wentworth by Ed. Funk. Ed accused the old man of meddling with his business and being a busy-body generally, and for a reproof knocked the old man down. Geo. Kaime came from Decatur with a terrible black eye the other morning. It was rumored that he was after some of the Kilpatrick reward and met another claimant who objected to George's right. D. E. Ritchie's residence was the scene of a grand wooden wedding on the evening of the 28th ult. Dave and his wife received almost every kind of wooden articles that could be thought of. The guests were treated to an excellent wooden wedding speech by Elder Jackson as well as one of the grandest wedding suppers or wooden wedding suppers that women could devise and execute. From the numerous couples of young people present your correspondent thought the ground work was being laid for an innumerable amount of wooden weddings a little more than 5 years hence. We have been informed that Elder S. D. C. Jackson will deliver a lecture on R. G. Ingersoll on the night of the 14th inst., and one on the British poets some time the week following. As an orator Elder Jackson has few equals. We don't hear our bourbon friends brag on Garcelon or the Maine steal: it has soured on their hands. CITIZEN.

IN his speech at the Bowdoin College banquet, General Chamberlain referred to the action of the Supreme Court of Maine, saying:

These decisions and the interpretations of law will be noble and lasting chapters in our political history, and they will be much needed in the land. They say that these decisions are new. It may be that the facts are somewhat new, and when the government undertakes to tell us that these decisions are in conflict with previous ones, I am not surprised. There never has been a case of facts like this submitted to the Supreme Court before. It may be that the language is new in accordance with previous decisions, but you must take into consideration the state of facts. They involve the very liberties of the people. The Judges of the Supreme Court rose above the views of mere lawyers. Lawyers must deal with such rights as are the effects of law. But in our case in Maine the court rose out of the sphere of mere law to the sphere of great ethics and to the region of right as constructive of law.

SPEAKING of the feeling for Blaine in Pennsylvania, Colonel Forney says in the Progress:

No aspirant deserves a warmer following than Mr. Blaine. He has what is known as magnetism in a rare degree, and he will make, if elected, a splendid chief of the republic. But there is a constituency that cannot be discounted this year, and, indeed, it ought not to be discounted. I mean the Southern country. It will be unsafe to trust the Presidency to the "solid South," and he is the best leader who can divide, or, at least, dissolve, that hard problem. Grant seems to me the fittest for the work, and it is not a wild hazard to predict that he may find a call from that section that will settle the competition.

S. J. TILDEN, at the close of the last presidential campaign, stuck his card on the democratic party and claimed the right to sit on the remains at the next post-mortem. We have seen no business transaction which better illustrates Tilden's case than the following reported in the Cincinnati Enquirer. It says: "A certain constable who heard of the death of a colored girl went post-haste to the house, where he discovered he was the first on the scene. He hastened at once to notify the coroner, but fearing that in his absence some other constable might come in and take the case from him, he pinned his professional card to the flesh of the child's breast, and left it sticking there while he was absent.'

THE financial statement of the charitable institutions of Illinois for the quarter ending Dec. 31, 1879, shows that the expenses of the ten institutions for the quarter amounted to $218,-588. The average number of inmates in the Northern Insane Hospital was 520, Central, 608; Southern, 494; Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, 327; Institution for the Blind, 112; Asylum for the feeble-minded, 274; Soldiers' Orphans' Home, 334; Charitable Eye and Ear Infirmary, 70; State Reform School, 175. Total, 2,917. Average cost per capita, $52.81. The lowest rate, $35.78, is at the Soldiers' Orphans' Home, and the highest, $80.95, at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

TO ALL appearance, the present representatives in congress would make what Mark Twain would call "a quiet lot of corpses." They are really the most amiable body of men ever assembled at Washington. It is all on account of that "called session," at which all the corks were drawn and all the whiz escaped. The effect upon the people gave the brigadiers a lesson that they are profiting by. But just wait until the corks can again be pulled in safety to the democratic party. It is quiescent from policy.

Arrival of the Princess at Halifax.

Socialist Troubles in Russia.

SALE OF A RAILROAD.

HALIFAX, Feb. 2.—The Princess landed at Ordnance at 12:45. She was accompanied by the Governor General, who had previously gone on board the Sarmatian. Guards of honor from Her Majesty's Ninety-seventh and the Halifax Sixty-sixth regiments were present. Salutes were fired from the forts, and crowds of people on the wharf cheered heartily. The Princess was received by Lieutenant Governor Archibald, Col. Drayton, R. A., the Mayor and Provincial Secretary, and other prominent officials. The viceregal party at once entered Governor Archibald's sleigh and drove to the Government House. The reception was most hearty and without any attempt at a grand display. Flags are displayed from many of the buildings.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—A St. Petersburg correspondent hears that several new measures will be announced on the 25th anniversary of the Czar's ascension to the throne. Among these proposals will be the placing the Jews upon the same footing as other Russians and extending to Poland all regulations existing in Russia that have been settled in principle. The proposal to concede freedom to the press is under consideration.

Although the police seized many copies of the The Will of the People, in the house where Deutche shot himself, the same issue of the paper had been circulated in St. Petersburg. It contains the programme of the executive committee, stating that the only way to gain the reforms they seek is to overthrow the government by forcible revolution or conspiracy. The socialists would then transfer the government to the assembly elected by all the Russians, irrespective of class. This is the general policy of the socialists by which they cast their lot with all the oppressed Russians. But when the assembly is elected, the socialists will recommend a programme in favor of a permanent popular representation, with full power over all general state questions, wide liberty of local self government, independence of rural community. the principle that land is the property of the people, the transfer of all works and factories to workingmen, complete liberty of speech, conscience and the press, etc.

ALTON, ILL., Feb. 2.—A young girl about seventeen years old, dressed in male attire, applied for shelter at the Police Station last night. Her sex was immediately discovered by the officers in charge and she was placed under arrest. She was arraigned in Squire Quarton's Court this morning but would give no account of herself save that she was on her way to her father's home in Greenup, Ill. She gave her name as Sidney Musgrave. The justice gave her over to the Mayor and Supervisor. A young man named Ed. Smith, who was in company with her, was fined $20 for vagrancy. He stated that he had been traveling with the girl two days but did not suspect her sex.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., Feb. 2.—A. L. Clark, sheriff of Christian county, died at his home, in this city, at 10:30 o'clock last night, of abcess of the liver. It is thought that his death was hastened by undue excitement, caused by the escape of three prisoners from the county jail the 25th ult. He was one of the most popular sheriffs Christian county ever had, and his death is widely mourned.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 2.—The Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad was sold at noon to-day, under an order of the United States Circuit Court. George Hoadley, of Cincinnati; Henry Bates, of Indianapolis, and George T. Bliss, of New York, the Purchasing Committee for the bondholders, bid it in for $2,500,000, having first deposited $1,000,000 in bods in compliance with the terms of sale. It is not known whether there will be any change in the management of the road.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The public debt statement issued to-day shows a decrease of the debt for January of $11,014,263; gold certificates outstanding, $10,411,100; silver ditto, $9,052,-910; certificates of deposit outstanding, $12,635,000; legal tender notes outstanding, $346,681,016; fractional currency outstanding, $15,668,729; decrease of debt since June 30, 1879, $20,428,015.

INDIANPOLIS, Feb. 2.—An ordinance is to be introduced in the City Council to-night, regulating the use of the streets for telegraph poles. It will vacate all the grants heretofore made, and impose a tax on all poles. A company is to be formed to act as agents of the city in leasing these privileges. Jay Gould is said to be at the bottom of it. A tax of from $5 to $10 a year per pole is proposed. In that case the Western Union Company, which owns 3,000 poles, may remove its office to the corporation line and run its wires around the city.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Senator Voorhees' exodus committee examined several witnesses to-day. B. K. Morris, real estate agent of Indianapolis, testified that to his belief there is abundant room and ample opportunity for industrial employment in that state for a large number of colored emigrants and that he had no knowledge of the present immigration being a political movement.

Thomas Wells, republican, from Indianapolis, answered squarely to Voorhees' questions, that they wanted negro men, not women and children, they were wanted to vote and lay out the democrats. They wanted twenty thousand, and would scatter them around in the close counties. He thought these views were generally concurred in by the Indiana Republicans. He thought it was right to give the negroes a fair chance in Indiana which they could not get in North Carolina. All the negroes who went to the rural districts have found work. He knew of no organization to secure emigration.

CINCINNATI, February 2.—The engineer of the Grand Opera House to-night was the cause of what, for a time, promised to be a serious panic. In his hurry to get away he raked the fire out of the furnace during the last act of LaSonnambula and threw a bucket of water on it. The furnace is immediately under the ladies' dressing room, the floor of which is defective and the smoke and steam in this way got up into the auditorium. A general stampede in the lower part of the house began, but was held in check by Manager Miles and his employes and quiet restored. The dressing room is under the balcony stairway, and had the panic reached that part of the house the consequences might have been serious. At the time of the scare Miramon was singing in her sleep-walking scene on the bridge, and bravely kept on through all the excitement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The senate confirmed the following nominations: To be supervisors of census, Illinois—James G. Wright, first district; D. H. Sunderland, second; John W. Bailey, third; H. H. McDowell, fourth; William A. Northcott, seventh; Edwin J. Udell, fifth.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Feb. 2.—George P. Bowen, Esq., Clerk of the United States Court for this district, died at noon to-day of typhoid pneumonia. He had only been ill a little more than a week. He was Deputy Clerk of the United States Court in Chicago from 1856 to 1860, and had been Clerk of this court since 1864. He leaves a widow and three children.

MARSHALL, TEX., Feb. 2.—A polar wave struck here last night. Snow fell this morning to the depth of six inches, and the sound of the merry sleigh bell may again be heard in Dixie. The price of wood advanced from $2 on Saturday to $5 to-day per cord.

BEFORE Tom Keough, of North Carolina, was elected Secretary of the National Republican Committee nobody attached much importance to what he said or thought on political subjects, but now his position has given him prominence, and what he says has weight, because of his opportunity to obtain correct information. Mr. Keough was in Washington last week, and the correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer extracted some news from him about the Sherman boom in North Carolina that illustrates the method he has of "mending his fences" in the turpentine state. He said that a Special Agent named Kilpatrick, of the Treasury Department, with letters from Secretary Sherman addressed to the Collector of Internal Revenue and Customs, did come into North Carolina in Secretary Sherman's Presidential interest; that the aforesaid Agent stopped at his (Keough's) home, Greensborough; that he affected to be on a vacation, but that after remaining some hours he showed Keough the letters Sherman had given him to the Revenue and Customs Collectors. These letters, Keough says, Kilpatrick did not present, and for the reason Keough told the Agent that while he was against Sherman as a candidate, he would act square with him. and that if he did present the aforesaid letters they would do Sherman more harm than good. Keough says that he thinks Grant is losing strength in New York, but that Grant will get the majority of the Southern delegates

GEN. GRANT is the only man we have that answers all the Republican requirements of the time. The cant about a third term's dangers is ridiculous, and proper only for Bedlam. No "unwritten law" could be violated in bringing him forward, for no such law exists. The Constitution contains all the law that we are bound to observe in electing a President, and the Constitution says nothing about one term, or a second term, or a third term of the Presiden tial office. As to "dictatorial power' coming from making a third term President, it is nothing but fun, and will have no effect on the mind of any man who would not expect to see ghosts on State street at high noon. It is, if serious, the drivel of second childishness, and will pass into mere oblivion. —Boston Traveller.

Another Partisan Scheme to "Starve the Government."

From the New York Times.

The Senate bill to repeal existing laws providing for permanent and indefinite appropriations for specific objects is another attempt to place in the hands of Congress the power to "starve out" an Administration which may be antagonistic to the legislative body. Under the laws as they now stand, the executive branches of the Government may be maintained from year to year by the use of moneys accruing to their credit by the operation of permanent provisions. It is proposed that all of the money in the Treasury, except that required for the payment of interest on the national debt, appropriations for the sinking fund, and a few other purposes, shall be under the absolute control of Congress, which may, at any time, close the doors of the Treasury and refuse the supplies needed to carry on the Government at the will and caprice of those who happen to control the two houses. That this is a power not to be lightly trusted into the hands of any faction is abundantly proved by the mischievous doings of a Democratic Congress.

IT is reported that the Texas Pacific Railroad is again knocking at the doors of Congress for a subsidy to aid in its completion. This railroad is essentially a southern measure, and immediately interests the whole south as well as Texas. If there is any one thing over which the dominant party in the south has been particularly noisy, it is the granting of subsidies to railroads. A resolution strongly condemning the practice—which, by the by, was originated by the democratic party—and pledging the party solemnly against it, forms a plank in the last National Democratic platform. That platform is to-day strongly indorsed by the solid south, and yet a great corporation has been persistently seeking government aid for the last three years for an enterprise which is exclusively southern. Nothing could more forcibly demonstrate how completely Democrats appreciate their own professions. A southern member who favors granting the desired assistance would take it in high dudgeon if one of his colleagues were to remind him that he was not representing his constituents. And the Southern member would be right. A Democratic vote as an indorsement of a platform is like Rip Van Winkle's drink—it doesn't count.—Globe-Dem.

A STRANGE disease has appeared in the East End of London. It is an affection of the eye, known in the affected district as "eye blight," and not familiar to the native oculist. It is virulent and dangerous, not seldom destroying the sight if it be not promptly taken in hand. Three weeks ago there were sixty-nine cases of this disease in Whitechapel alone. The epidemic is supposed to be a foreign importation.

THE Jean F. Perry land claim, involving some 1,300 acres of land in the heart of the city of St. Louis, will be taken up for final action on the 1st of April next, and parties interested have been notified by the General Land Office Commissioner to file their evidence and arguments, either for or against, prior to that date. This claim has been before the department and the courts for several years.

FERRISS—FERRISS

Decatur One-Price Shoe Store.

Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

ALL accounts agree that there has been an unusual demand for cheaply made or shoddy boots or shoes. It is a very short-sighted policy to buy or sell such stuff. In using these goods you pay out twice as much money in a year for your boots and shoes, and you never have a pair that fits, because manufacturers of the cheap grades give no attention to the fit of their work. We trust that people who buy shoddy work will turn over a new leaf in this matter and practice true economy, by making quality the first consideration of their purchase of boots and shoes. At the popular Boot and Shoe House of L. L. Ferriss you can get prime, solid and serviceable Boots and Shoes for as little money as you can buy cheaper grades elsewhere His goods are made from the choicest materials, over improved styles of Lasts, graded in sizes and widths to fit the human foot properly—and no shoddy nor deception there. Mr. Ferriss does a one-price cash business, and can afford to sell very low. You can find the largest assortment in the city of strictly good goods at Ferriss' New Shoe Store, 13 East Main street, being just across the street from his old store and one door east of Millikin's Bank.]

JOSEPH CRITCHFIELD, the temperance lecturer, assisted by his accomplished daughter, Miss Effie, gave a splendid literary and musical entertainment at the tabernacle last night before an audience of fair proportions. The programme consisted of select readings, recitations and delineations of eccentric character, humorous, quaint and pathetic The songs of the young lady were received with great favor, and Mr. Critchfield's oratory and comicalities won round after round of applause and kept the audience in a continual roar of laughter. He is a natural comedian, and never fails to entertain young and old.

UNDER the generalship of Mrs. John Imboden about 14 elderly ladies of the First M. E. Church, yesterday about noon, surprised Mrs. Cy. M. Imboden at her home, on South Main street, by calling on her in a body. It was the occasion of Mrs. Imboden's birthday anniversary, and although she was somewhat taken back by the invasion, she soon recovered her wonted composure and entertained her callers most agreeably. All partook of a splendid dinner, and remained until late in the afternoon. No gentlemen were present.

THE trial of John Moffett, the alleged mail robber, which was to have come up to-day in the United States district court at Springfield, has been postponed until Thursday next, on account of the death of the clerk of the court, Geo. AT the request of many tax-payers Mr. A. W. Hardy has consented to be a candidate for alderman in the fourth ward at the ensuing municipal election, and the announcement appears elsewhere in to-day's paper under the proper heading.—Mr. Hardy is well-known to be an honest, careful business man, and if elected he will perform the responsible duties of the office with honor to himself and credit to his constituency.

THE members of the executive committee of the Young Men's Christian Association are urged to be present at the regular monthly meeting at the rooms this evening.

The Fourth Ward School.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—It occurs to me that one or two statements in your paper of Saturday may give a wrong impression and thus an injustice be done to the pupils and teachers of the fourth ward school. The disorders complained of have been almost entirely outside of the school. It is true that the boy who drew a knife upon me threw some slates at his teacher, but it was done in the third ward school some two years ago. There are a few pupils in the school who have sympathized with the rowdies outside. But it is simply justice to a very large majority of the pupils and to the teachers, for me to say that, so far as I know, the order and discipline in the schools and upon the grounds has been just as good in the fourth ward as in any other school in the city.

I am happy to say that since the arrests made on Friday there has been no annoyance of any kind. I sincerely hope that there may be no further occasion for harsh measures

Mr. Lewis has been in the queensware business in this city for a number of years, and up to Saturday last was connected with Haworth & Son's check rower establishment. He is generally known as a public spirited citizen and thorough business man, careful in all his dealings; and it gives us pleasure to announce him as a member of one of the old established and leading hardware firms of Decatur.

CONSIGNED TO THE GRAVE.

Funeral of the Late John W. Haworth from the Tabernacle—Buried with Odd-Fellows and Military Honors.

The funeral of John W. Haworth, who departed this life on Sunday last, took place from the tabernacle this afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a very large assemblage of bereaved relatives and sympathizing friends of the family. Rev. D. P. Bunn delivered an appropriate sermon on the subject, "The Future of Man," and a selected choir, composed of Messrs. D. L. Bunn, Z. T. Hundley, and Mrs. S. Burgess and Mrs. A. W. Conklin, rendered a number of selections very beautifully. At the conclusion of the sermon the remains were placed in charge of members of Decatur Lodge No. 65, I. O. O. F., and borne to the waiting hearse by the pall-bearers, W. A. Ragan, Daniel Moore, John Ullrich, William Towling, D. S. McGurthey and W. Steinbach.

The funeral cortege was an imposing one, and included a platoon of police, members of the Macon county veteran association, Decatur Lodge of Odd-Fellows, and also members of Celestial Lodge, city officials, employes at Haworth & Son's check rower manufactory, members of the Decatur Reform Club, and relatives and friends in carriages and other conveyances.

At the grave at Greenwood Cemetery the Odd-Fellows' burial service was read, after which impressive ceremony the veterans, in command of Capt. G. S. Durfee, fired three volleys over the rounded resting place of their dead comrade.

In their sad affliction the bereaved widow and orphan child and relatives have the sincere sympathy of all our people.

"License or No License."

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—As the time approaches for our city election, the question of license or no license will become most absorbing. Is it possible to gain the consent of the radical temperance people of Decatur to a fair discussion of this subject? Will they allow that there may be honest temperance people who differ with them as to the best way of suppressing intemperance? Will they look facts squarely in the face, and tell us that there is less drunkenness in Macon county than there was in the days of licensed saloons? Many who have anxiously watched the experiment of "no license," now believe it worse than a failure. Were there ever in the days of licensed saloons scenes so disgraceful as are enacted almost every Saturday in the vacant lots back of some of our business houses, where a dozen men, with a half dozen gallon jugs of whisky, meet, fearless of any legal restraint, and drink themselves drunk? Do not many men from the country, who used to, when they came to town, take a glass of beer in a licensed saloon, now buy a gallon of whisky, take it home and remain drunk while it lasts? Do not many young men (and old ones too), who a few months ago occasionally took a glass of beer in a saloon, now keep a gallon of whisky in their rooms from which they drink and treat their friends, unrestrained by the fear of being seen entering a saloon? Is there a man in Macon county who can't get a glass of whisky when he wants it out of some friend's private gallon? Do a majority of the saloon keepers desire a return to the license system? Are they not making more money than when they had to pay license and were liable to prosecution and heavy damages for dealing out drams, while they now sell gallons of drunkenness and death, unterrified by the fear of prosecution? Will our temperance people take the brand of Cain from the brow of those who dare honestly to differ with them in their views of the practical suppression of drunkenness; cease to call every man who believes in a well-regulated license system, backed by the strict enforcement of our state laws, "Whisky Men," and enter into an honest discussion of practical temperance? Let us unite on the best means of controlling the whisky traffic, instead of wasting our strength on a visionary search for the unattainable, and then elect to office men whose good morals and practical good sense will insure good government and prosperity for our citizens. TEMPERANCE

WEDDING AT MT. ZION.

An "Observer's" Account of the Union of a Kansas Preacher and a Macon County Young Lady.

At the residence of Mr. B. W. Davidson, in Mt. Zion, on Thursday, the 29th ult., at 1½ o'clock p. m., Rev. Joseph N. Funston, of Garfield, Pawnee Co., Kan., and Miss Minda Davidson were united together in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. H. Crider, of Kinmundy, Ill. The attire of the groom was a neat suit of black; while the bride handsomely appeared in a dress of mohair, beautifully trimmed with steel-colored satin.

Mr. Funston is a minister of the M. E. church, and has charge of a regular work in Kansas. He is a young man of culture and high moral standing, and will yet make his mark as a successful worker in the church. The young wife he has taken has been a popular and successful school teacher for a number of years. She is a lady of fine accomplishments, and possesses the tact and disposition to make an excellent companion for the gentleman she has chosen.

Mrs. B. W. Davidson deserves a great deal of credit for the sumptuous and splendid dinner which she had prepared for the occasion. The most fastidious epicurean would have been pleased with the turkey and other delicacies that graced that well-laden table. The orange, lemon, fruit, marble and bride's cake, with many other good and nice things, were abundant.

The following are some of the guests who were present on the occasion: Dr. A. D. Bridgman and lady, John Downey and lady, R. W. Black and lady, Rev. Mr. Britton, pastor of the C. P. Church, Col. S. P. Outten, Miss Mary E. Davis, Mrs. Kate Carden, Mrs. Ella Black, Mr. D. C. Riber and his sister, besides several others. Mr. C. L. Davidson and Miss —— Harbaugh, of Sullivan, were the waiters of the wedded pair, and of course performed their part in the most approved and handsome style. OBSERVER.

It is our purpose to deserve the patronage of all by offering nothing but first-class goods at prices lower than were ever quoted in this city. The bulk of our goods are bought from the foremost houses in the country, such as John Shillito & Co., Jeffras, Seeley & Co., M. Judd & Co., and a score of other equally well known and reputable houses. The sneers of some few of our competitors deceive no one. MIRANDA M. SARGENT, M. D.

Office and residence over Gehrmann's store. Street entrance between Gehrmann's and Stookey's, Merchant street, Decatur, Ill.
Sept. 22, 1879—dtf

"I say, old fel, you haven't got a five franc piece about you that you don't know what to do with, have you?" "There's one." "Thanks—but, hello, I say, you know, its bad!" "You asked me for one I didn't know what to do with."

Dr. Storrs tells the story of a man who remarked to a penurious companion that the kingdom of Satan was to be destroyed, and asked him if he wasn't glad of it. "Yes," he replied, "I suppose so, but it seems a pity to have anything wasted."

A gentleman met a stranger on the street, grasped his hand cordially and exclaimed in tones of politeness, but uncertain recognition: "Mr. Brown, I believe." "If you believe that," calmly replied the stranger, whose name was Hamilton, "you will believe anything."

A prayer preferred by a somewhat simple New Englander, who was overheard offering his petition behind a stump of bushes in the field, was: "Oh, Lord, I want a new coat—good cloth—none of your coarse, flimsy kind of stuff, but a good, thick, warm, comfortable broadcloth—such as Bill Hale wears."

A railroad clerk in a southern depot, who had been annoyed beyond endurance by inquiries as to "whether that was the right time," placed the following placard under the clock: "This is a clock—it is running—it is Cincinnati time—it is right—it is set every day at 10 o'clock—now keep your mouth shut."

We Guarantee What We Say.

We know Shiloh's Consumption Cure is decidedly the best Cough Medicine made. It will cure a common or Chronic Cough, or Bronchitis, in half the time, and relieve Cough, Whooping Cough, Asthma at once, and show more cases of Consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the younger child, and we guarantee what we say. Price 10 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00. "THE GREAT BOOM."

Eighteen hundred and seventy-nine will long be remembered as the time when all kinds of business and financial prosperity seemed to spring into new life. Merchants are finding plenty of ready customers for their wares, mechanics meet with ready employment at fair wages, and the farmers are receiving advanced prices for their products, and it is acknowledged by all that in no part of our country are the evidences of prosperity and comfort so marked as along the entire line of the "Old Reliable" Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad. And to attain these results the management of the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad have given their careful thought and attention, and the rapid growth of business, and increasing wealth of the community along the whole line are evidences that their efforts are fully appreciated. We are, as usual, running in connection with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad through Day Coaches, Reclining Chairs (free), and Pullman Sleeping Cars from Chicago via Quincy to Missouri river points. Also through Day Coaches from Toledo and Indianapolis, with Pullman Sleeping Cars from Toledo via Danville, Springfield and Quincy, to Kansas City, Atchison and St. Joseph without change. Families traveling with children will find it greatly to their advantage to take the "Old Reliable" H. & St. Jo. R. R., as no changes or transfers are made.
